

Lunch & Dinner Server

Description

As a Lunch & Dinner Server on the Closing Shift, you'll help fuel our busiest hours—serving guests during peak times and helping close the restaurant with care and attention. You're part server, part multitasking pro, and part “we got this” closer.

Responsibilities

- Greet guests warmly and take orders efficiently.
- Serve food and drinks quickly and accurately.
- Check in with guests to ensure a great experience.
- Clear tables, clean dining areas, and reset for the next guests.
- Handle closing duties: wiping counters, emptying trash, cleaning floors, restocking supplies.
- Help close the front of house following checklist procedures.
- Communicate with kitchen and teammates to keep everything running smoothly—even during a rush.

Qualifications

- Reliable and able to work afternoon through evening.
- Friendly, professional, and able to handle busy periods with calm confidence.
- Team player with good communication and follow-through.
- Able to lift, bend, and be on your feet for long stretches.
- Previous restaurant or serving experience preferred, but not required.

Job Benefits

- Evening hours that leave your mornings open.
- Free or discounted meals during your shift.
- Tips—especially during busy lunch and dinner service.
- Friendly and supportive team that works hard and laughs together.
- Training provided, including closing procedures and food service skills.
- Opportunities to grow into lead or trainer roles.
- MEALS INCLUDED and this is a tipped position after probationary period ends!
